Waiting for the summer until the leaf falls down

Waiting for the night to turn to dawn

Waiting for the moonlight shadows to cast a spell

Waiting for the rain to turn to gold

Waiting for my dreams to come true

Waiting for my next stop Should be you

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

Mmmm mmmm mmmm uhmmm

My heart beating in the shadows of my hidden fears

Beating rejection

Beating void

Will I ever see this through

Should I release myself Or pursue?

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

Hold me, hold me, hold me, dont release me

Kiss me, kiss me, kiss me,

loose control,

Feel me, feel me, feel me,

dont you fear me

See me, see me, see me,

fall in love

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong

You came along like you loved me You came along so strong
